A View into RESPONSE to INSTRUCTION & INTERVENTION (RtII)

POWERFUL TOOLS & STRATEGIES FOR USING DATA TO IMPROVE STUDENT OUTCOMES

Wednesday, March 17, 2010

8:30AM -3:30PM

Desmond Conference Center, Malvern, Pennsylvania

Educators and education professionals can learn about Response to Instruction & Intervention (RtII), on March 17, 2010, at a full-day workshop. Intervention specialist Susan Hentz, View Inc., will provide attendees with research-based instructional strategies to improve student learning. This workshop will be valuable to educators who want to learn how to better understand multiple tiers of instruction and intervention, use data effectively, and develop skills for collaborative problem solving pertaining to Response to Instruction and Intervention (RtII in Pennsylvania) into their classrooms.

Workshop participants receive

- Breakfast & lunch provided by the award-winning Desmond Restaurant
- Full-day, morning & afternoon strategies & resources sessions,
- Take-away resources for your classrooms, and
- 6 hours of ACT 48

$149 per participant

District Groups of 3 or more receive $15 discount per person

Participants in this seminar will:

- Learn key components of the multi-tiered approach,
- Understand current RtI terminology & web-based resources,
- Plan for and provide tiered instruction and intervention through collaborative problem solving, and
- Meet students' needs by understanding how monitoring progress and providing targeted instruction improves student outcomes.
